ESTIMATES FOR THE YEAR

Amounts Heads of Departments of City Government Will Ask For.

FIRE DEPARTMENT INCREASE

Amounts Necessary to Give the City a Paid Service-Appropriation Asked to Fit Up the Public Park. Figures in Detail.

For several weeks past the heads of the different departments of the city government have been engaged preparing their estimates for the fiscal year, which begins April I. These estimates will be placed in the hands of the estimates committees of councils, who will pass upon them and then recommend be allowed. With the exception of the fire department the increase asked for by the vari- at the Frothingham. ous departments are very modest. Chief Simpson asks $1,000 less for his police department than was granted last year. Heads of all departments money to meet judgments amounting to $40,000 or $50,000 that have been filed against it. These represent damages allowed for injury to properties by grading and opening street, laying sewers, etc. The increase in the amount asked for the fire department will be necessary to give the city a paid force of firemen.

Departments in Detail. This year $4,650 was asked and alowed for the mayor's department. The amount has been cut down to $4,590 for next year. The sum is divided as follows: Salary of mayor, $2,500; salary of mayor's private secretary, $1,000; stationery, $100; incidental expenses, $150; printing and postage, $40; tele-this year, and next year he wants $6,750 to enable him to buy a much ceded safe and employ an additional clerk. The addition of Bellevue to the city with the natural increase of business in the city treasurer's office from year to year makes an additional clerk necessity. Mr. Brook's estimate in clerk, $600; incidentals, $250; printing.

$2,000; clerk hire, $1,200; printing, etc., $150; incidentals, $100.

There is a decrease of $500 in the city olicitor's estimate. This year he was allowed $3,400; for the coming year he asks but $2,900, divided as follows: assistant, $800; incidentals, $500; supreme court expenses, $100.

City Clerk Objects.

Heretofore it has been customary to charge the expenses of fireman, janitor and janitress of t j city building, together with the cast of lighting and heating it and keeping it in repair, to the city clerk's department. City Clerk Lavelle believes that it is unjust to his Salary of city engineer, $2,000; salary of assistant, $1,200; salary of office clerk, $1,000; salary of levelman, $900; salary of draughtsman and engineer, $1,200; salaries of rodmen and chainmen, $3,720; incidentals, $400; printing and stationery, $200; rent of telephone, $50. Street Commissioner Kirst asks for $51,887.80 for his department, divided as follows: Salary of street commissloner, $1,500; incidentals, $25; printing and stationery, $50; repairs of bridges and cuiverts, $4,000; cleaning cobble, stone, block and wood pavements, $4,000; cleaning asphalt pavements, $12,-000; cleaning sewers and drains, $6,000; expense of crusher, $200; employe to operate crusher, $600; repairs of asphalt pave, $4,112.80; general street repairs, $3,000; repairs of Mountain road, $500; ward appropriations, $16,000.

Estimate of Assessors. The city assessors estimate that it will cost $7,700 to run their department next year. This year they were allowed $7,150. Their figures for next year are: Salaries of city assessors, $1,000 each, $3,000; salary of clerk, $600; assistant ssessors, $3,500; assessment books, $100; notices of taxpayers, $50; stationery and postage, $100; board of appeals,

This year $51,210 was allowed for unning the police department. By cutting out some of the smaller appropriations Chief Simpson has shaved the estimate down $1,000. For the fire department $37,413.38 was allowed this year. For next year the amount of the estimate is $56,850, divided as follows: Chief's salary............$ 1,500 Four assistants' salary, $150 Six engineers, salary $720 each. 4,320 Thirty-four permanent men, Sixty-eight permanent men 6,800

SNOW ARRIVED JUST IN TIME

There's Not Much of It but It Robs Us of A Green Christmas-Balls at Tur> ner Hall and Music Hall.

Scranton holiday shoppers thronged the streets of the city to a late hour last night and the bustle and hum of trade gave the avenues an appearance of liveliness that has not been surpassed at any Christmastide in years. About supper time the long-lookedfor snow gently began to descend, but the flaxes were so slight that fears were many and hopes slight that the white mantle would overspread the earth and give to the occasion a holiday appearance. A green Christmas is as rare as than the one given here last year by a day in June and it is not a desirable the same organization, the instrumentkind and as the minutes sped by the air grew thicker, and about 8 o'clock heavy snowflakes fell and in short time covered the streets and sidewalks. Customers were busy hurrying to and fro, stopping at this window and that, best advantage. No chorus of the Bos- gazing at the attractive displays. Every street car unloaded as many passengers as the capacity of the vehicle could stand, and the outgoing cars were so erowded that many could not gain admittance.

The streets were lined with people and travel was slow. Woman laden with bundles picked their way along the slippery pavements, and occasionally a luckless purchaser would lose his feet and go down in a heap beneath a multitude of bundles.

Santa Claus was king and young and old alike paid homage to his shrine. The revelers were out, too, and enjoyed themselves without breaking through the lines of propriety. Shoppers Were Numerous.

Lackawanna avenue was the busiest thoroughfare. From one end to the other it was ablaze with decorations and from out the shop windows the was well patronized and every store seen, from the hurrying tide of humanity, that the population of all the poured into the city, and looking at the bundles of merchandise borne with the throngs through the streets, the wonder would grow as to how the stores could contain such a stock or how anything was left for other buyers.

The scene on the streets at 9 o'clock was the busiest and the happiest. Hapchase, thinking of the expectant ones of Christmas. Without the white mantle of snow Christmas would not have its accustomed suggestiveness and Santa Claus would be at a loss to en- at joy his sleigh ride.
